Preparing the Annual Disclosure of Crime Statistics

The Office of Institutional Research prepares the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act. This report is prepared in cooperation with the Director of Residence Life, the Director of Security & Conduct and local law enforcement.

Campus crime, arrest and referral statistics provided in this report are compiled from local law enforcement, designated campus officials as well as reports made to the college’s “Cause for Concern Incident Reporting System” (also known as Maxient or Concerns Report).

Each year an electronic announcement (internally known as a “wired announcement”) is sent to all students, staff and faculty outlining that the report is available and where it can be found as well as an announcement through the mass communication system.

Reporting a Crime

Students, faculty, staff, community members and guests are encouraged to accurately report all crimes and public safety incidents in a timely manner to the Campus Security Director or the Dowagiac Police Department when the victim of a crime elects to or is unable to make such a report. Reporting crimes to the Campus Security Director will assure timely warning can be given to the campus community if needed and accurate statistics may be reported. To report a crime, individuals may contact the Campus Security Director at 269-783-2194. If it is an emergency, call 911. For non-emergencies after hours call 269-445-1560. Reporters may also access the Concerns Form available on-line (Concerns Report) which provides a means for anonymous reporting if this is preferred. The college refers all reports of criminal activity to Dowagiac Police Department. If you are the victim of a crime and do not want to pursue action within the College system or the criminal justice system, you may still want to consider making a confidential report by filling out the Concerns Form available on-line (Concerns Report). The purpose of a confidential report is to comply with your wish to keep the matter confidential, while taking steps to enhance the future safety of yourself and others. With such information, the College can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students, employees and visitors; determine where there is a pattern of crime with regard to a particular location, method, or assailant; and alert the campus community to potential danger. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crime statistics for the institution.
Southwestern Michigan College contracts with Cass County Sheriff’s Department as on campus law enforcement on the Niles campus. The Security Director oversees these contracts.

Southwestern Michigan College has two phases of security at the Niles Campus. These include: 1. The Campus Security Director, 2. Contractual agreement with a private security company and a contract with Cass County Sheriff’s Department.

The Campus Security Director and Cass County Sheriff’s Department enforce college policies, Federal laws and Michigan State laws. The Director maintains a close working relationship with the Cass County Sheriff’s Department. The Campus Security Director does not have power of arrest while the Cass County Sheriff’s Department does. SMC works with the above listed agencies on investigations of crimes on the Niles Campus. SMC currently does not have an MOU with Cass County Sheriff’s Department regarding the investigation of alleged criminal incident though there is a contractual arrangement described earlier.

Responses to a Report

Dispatchers are available at 269-683-1577 twenty four (24) hours a day to answer your calls. In response to a call, Campus Security and/or Cass County Sheriff’s Department will take the required action, either dispatching an officer or asking the victim to report in person to file an incident report. All reported crimes will be concurrently investigated by the College and/or Cass County Sheriff’s Department and may become a matter of public record. All incident reports are forwarded to the Director of Security for review and referral to the Director of Security & Conduct for potential action, as appropriate. Investigators will investigate a report when it is deemed appropriate. Additional information obtained via the investigation will be forwarded to the Office of Security & Conduct. If assistance is required from Cass County Sheriff’s Department, the Campus Security Director will contact the appropriate unit. If a sexual assault or rape should occur, staff on the scene, including the Campus Security Director, will offer the victim a wide variety of services.

SMC maintains a daily crime log which is available to the public for viewing during normal business hours.

SMC, in the Fall of 2016, began a partnership with United Way to provide a location on it’s Dowagiac campus for limited counseling services. The counselor is bound by professional and ethical standards to report immediate issues related to campus safety to security or law enforcement.

In addition, SMC does not have any officially recognized student organizations with off-campus locations. Therefore, we do not monitor or record criminal activities off-campus though local police agencies.

SMC will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence (as that term is defined in section 16 of title 18, United States Code), or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by SMC against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for the purposes of this paragraph.

Timely Notification

In the event that a situation arises on campus that in the judgment of the college President or designee is deemed to pose a security risk to the college community, timely warnings will be issued through the college mass communication system which provides instant communication via email, cell phone, and home phone. Students and employees of the college may also elect to receive notifications via text messages.

Timely Warning Notices shall be provided to students and employees in a manner that is timely, that withholds the names of victims as confidential, and with the intent to aid in the prevention of similar occurrences. The following Uniformed Crime Reporting (UCR) Program/National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS) crime classifications are typically reviewed for a Timely Warning Notice: major incidents of arson, aggravated assault, murder/non-negligent manslaughter, robbery, and sex offenses. Cases of aggravated assault and sex offenses are considered on a case-by-case basis, depending on when and where the incident occurred, when it was reported, and the amount of information known by SMC. The Director of Security & Conduct or designee reviews all reports, in consultation with the Vice President in charge of Security and President, as described above, to determine if there is an ongoing threat to the community and if the distribution of Timely Warning Notice is warranted. Timely Warning Notices may also be posted for other crime classifications and locations, as deemed necessary. Timely Warning Notices are typically written and distributed by any of the following persons or designee: President, Vice President of Enrollment Management & Student Life or the Director of Security & Conduct.

Security of and Access to Campus Facilities

The Niles Campus instructional building is closed from 11:00 p.m. until 7:30 a.m. Monday through Thursday and all day on Fridays. The campus is closed weekends except during classes and special events. Buildings are locked and secured when either or both college campuses are officially closed. Other than posted hours, these buildings are secured and only accessible to appropriate and qualified college employees through keyed entrance.

Cass County Sheriff Department patrols facilities to ensure all areas are safe and secure.

SMC maintains campus facilities in a way that minimizes hazardous and unsafe conditions. Parking lots and walkways are illuminated with lighting. The Campus Security Director works closely with Facilities Management to address burned out lights promptly as well as malfunctioning door locks or other physical conditions that enhance security.

Missing Student Resident Notification

For information on a missing student resident, see the Dowagiac Annual Security Report. The Niles campus does not have housing facilities.
Security Awareness & Crime Prevention Programs

Programs relating to security awareness and crime prevention are sponsored by various college departments throughout the year. The College Security Director in conjunction with college personnel facilitates programs for student, parent, faculty, and new employee orientations, student organizations, community organizations, in addition to quarterly programs for Resident Life Advisors and residents providing a variety of educational strategies and tips on how to protect themselves from sexual assault, theft and other crimes. A common theme among the security awareness programs is to encourage students and employees to be responsible for their own security and the security of others.

Prohibited Substances

Southwestern Michigan College and its Board of Trustees certify and pledge to make every effort to provide and maintain a drug free work place and learning environment for employees and students. This is in compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendment of 1989 (Public Law 101-226). For more information online, see Drug and Alcohol Program.

Southwestern Michigan College recognizes that alcohol and drug misuse or abuse is a chronic progressive disease that can erode the foundation of SMC’s goals and objectives. Further, it can diminish or disrupt the attainment of an individual’s intellectual, social and emotional growth. Therefore, SMC is committed to providing a safe, healthy and sober environment. To this end, the college annually distributes the Drug & Alcohol Abuse Prevention Program Notice and conducts a biennial review of the programs that inform the college community about the risks of alcohol and illegal drugs as well as the sanctions applied to violators of the college’s policies related to illegal behavior related to prohibited substances.

Standards of Conduct

Southwestern Michigan College and its Board of Trustees prohibit the manufacture, distribution, possession, use of, and/or sale of any controlled substance and/or alcohol on the SMC campus or while engaged in any college activity. Violations of this policy by faculty, staff or students could result in disciplinary action up to and including termination or expulsion.
Legal Sanctions

There are legal sanctions under local, state and federal law, for the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol as well as underage drinking. A violation under state law may result in a misdemeanor or felony conviction, depending on the nature of the offense, punishable by imprisonment, payment of fines, confiscation of real and personal property, or a combination of the three.

For further information on standards of conduct and legal sanctions, employees can refer to the Employee Handbook given at the time of employment. Students may reference the Student Handbook (Student Code of Conduct.) The consumption, possession, use and sale of alcoholic beverages by students or their guests on campus, at any college sponsored function or by any group that is identified with the college is prohibited. Dowagiac Police Department will enforce Michigan underage drinking laws. Any student appearing on campus or at any college-sponsored function under the influence of intoxication will be subject to disciplinary action.

Drugs

The illegal consumption, possession, use and sale of any narcotic or unlawful drug will be grounds for disciplinary action and is prohibited at SMC. The Dowagiac Police Department will enforce Federal and Michigan drug laws.

Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

Each year the college updates its Emergency Preparedness and Response Plan (EPRP).

The purpose of the EPRP is to protect employees and students from serious injury, property loss, or loss of life, in the event of an actual or potential major disaster. A major disaster may include, but is not limited to, any of the following: fire, tornado, earthquake, bomb threat, or hazardous chemical spill. The EPRP discusses Emergency Operation Center activation, emergency communications as well as emergency protocols for fire and evacuation, medical emergency, bomb threat, hostile intruder/active shooter, utility failure and natural disaster, severe weather, earthquakes, shelter in place/safe shelter and suspicious package.

Authority to declare a college emergency rests with the college president or his appointee in consultation with the Cabinet (Vice President of Enrollment Management & Campus Life, Sr Vice President for Business Affairs & Chief Financial Officer, Provost, Vice President for Institutional Advancement.)

As one part of the general procedures, emergency warning will be given. The warning could come from following sources: commercial radio or television, internal paging system, mass communication system, an external siren, building smoke detection or sprinkler system, web/internet, private citizen or local police. It is recommended that several sources be monitored to assist in determining when emergency situations exist since no one system can cover all circumstances.

SMC uses these systems to immediately notify the campus community, upon confirmation that a dangerous situation or emergency exists involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or staff on campus and when immediate action is required by the recipient.

If the President confirms that an emergency or dangerous situation exists that poses an immediate threat to some part or of all of the campus community, the Cabinet will collaborate to initiate the message, determine the recipients, decided if the emergency impacts a segment of the community, design the content of the warning and will use some of all of the above described systems to deliver that message. The Cabinet will, without delay and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the judgment of the first responders, compromise the efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to or otherwise mitigate the emergency. Follow up messages are sent to the SMC community using some or all of the communication methods described above as deemed appropriate.

Students and employees automatically receive notifications via email or voice mail to all email addresses and phone numbers entered into the Banner system. Students may opt into the text messaging service by visiting the Help Desk at the Dowagiac and/or Niles Campus. Employees need to complete the Employee Change Request Form in ORC for text opt in.

In the event the situation impacts the larger community outside of campus, the President or designee develops the information to be disclosed and Marketing disseminates the information to the larger community.

Testing of the various emergency alert systems are conducted prior or at the start of each semester. Campus Security ensures that the testing and proper documentation and notification of the results occur.
The following are the Building Evacuation procedures that are outlined in the EPRP.

- Take only keys, wallets and essential belongings with you.
- If possible wear weather appropriate clothing.
- If you are the last one to exit your room close, and lock doors.
- Leave the building immediately.
- Do not investigate the source of the emergency.
- Walk, don’t run, to the nearest exit.
- Use stairs, not elevators.
- Assist people with special needs.
- If there is no immediate danger, persons with disability/mobility limitations should shelter in place and call 911 report location and number of people needing assistance.
- If there is imminent danger and evacuation cannot be delayed, the person with a disability should be carried or helped from the building in the best and fastest manner (the person with the disability is the best authority as to how to be moved out of the building).
- If you are unable to evacuate, call 911 & Security (1234) and report your location.
- As you make your way out, encourage those you encounter to exit as well.
- Follow instructions of Security or other identified emergency personnel.
- Wait for instructions before returning to your building after an evacuation.

Sexual Misconduct

SMC does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs and sexual harassment and sexual violence are types of sex discrimination. Other acts can also be forms of sex-based discrimination and are also prohibited whether sexually based or not and include dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. As a result, SMC issues this statement of policy to inform the community of our comprehensive plan addressing sexual misconduct, educational programs, and procedures that address sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, whether the incident occurs on or off campus and when it is reported to a college official. In this context, SMC prohibits the offenses of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking and reaffirms its commitment to maintain a campus environment emphasizing the dignity and worth of all members of the college community.

For a complete copy of SMC’s policy governing sexual misconduct, visit Sexual Responsibility and Misconduct at SMC.

Definitions

There are numerous terms used by SMC in our policy and procedures.

Consent is defined by SMC as “…sexual permission. Consent can be given by word or action, but non-verbal consent is not as clear as talking about what you want sexually and what you don’t. Consent to some form of sexual activity cannot be automatically taken as consent to another form of sexual activity. Silence—without actions demonstrating permission—cannot be assumed to show consent.” (SMC Sexual Misconduct Policy, pg. 4).

Sexual Assault: “Sexual assault” means an offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI’s Uniform Crime Reporting system. A sex offense is any act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent. Rape is defined as the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.
Fondling is defined as the touching of the private parts of another person for the purposes of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.

Incest is defined as non-forcible sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.

Statutory Rape is defined as a non-forcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

See Appendix A for a summary of Michigan State definitions of criminal sexual conduct.

Domestic Violence: The term “domestic violence” means

1) Felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed—
   a. By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
   b. By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
   c. By a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
   d. By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or
   e. By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

2) For the purposes of complying with the requirements of this section and section 668.41, any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting.

In the State of Michigan, domestic violence is defined as follows (Act 389 of 1978, section 400.1501):

(d) “Domestic violence” means the occurrence of any of the following acts by a person that is not an act of self-defense:
   (i) Causing or attempting to cause physical or mental harm to a family or household member.
   (ii) Placing a family or household member in fear of physical or mental harm.
   (iii) Causing or attempting to cause a family or household member to engage in involuntary sexual activity by force, threat of force, or duress.
   (iv) Engaging in activity toward a family or household member that would cause a reasonable person to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested.

(e) “Family or household member” includes any of the following:
   (i) A spouse or former spouse.
   (ii) An individual with whom the person resides or has resided.
   (iii) An individual with whom the person has or has had a dating relationship.
   (iv) An individual with whom the person is or has engaged in a sexual relationship.
   (v) An individual to whom the person is related or was formerly related by marriage.
   (vi) An individual with whom the person has a child in common.
   (vii) The minor child of an individual described in subparagraphs (i) to (vi).

Dating Violence: The term “dating violence” means violence committed by a person

1) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim and
2) The existence of such a relationship shall be based on the reporting party’s statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

For the purposes of this definition—
- Dating Violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.
- Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

For the purposes of complying with the requirements of this section and section 668.41, any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting.

Dating violence is covered under domestic violence in Michigan State law. Please note the definition of “dating relationship” in Act 389 of 1978, section 400.1501:

“(b) “Dating relationship” means frequent, intimate associations primarily characterized by the expectation of affectional involvement. Dating relationship does not include a causal relationship or an ordinary fraternization between 2 individuals in a business or social context.”

Stalking: The term “stalking” means

1) Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to—
   a. fear for the person’s safety or the safety of others; or
   b. Suffer substantial emotional distress.

2) For the purposes of this definition—
   a. Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about, a person, or interferes with a person’s property.
   b. Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.
   c. Reasonable persons means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.

3) For the purposes of complying with the requirements of this section and section 668.41, any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting.

Michigan State law defines stalking as (Act 328, section 750.411h):

(a) “Course of conduct” means a pattern of conduct composed of a series of 2 or more separate noncontinuous acts evidencing a continuity of purpose.
(b) “Emotional distress” means significant mental suffering or distress that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.
(c) “Harassment” means conduct directed toward a victim that includes, but is not limited to, repeated or continuing unconsented contact that would cause a reasonable individual to suffer emotional distress and that actually causes the victim to suffer emotional distress.

Harassment does not include constitutionally protected activity or conduct that serves a legitimate purpose.

(d) “Stalking” means a willful course of conduct involving repeated or continuing harassment of another individual that would cause a reasonable person to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested and that actually causes the victim to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested.

(e) “Unconsented contact” means any contact with another individual that is initiated or continued without that individual’s consent or in disregard of that individual’s expressed desire that the contact be avoided or discontinued. Unconsented contact includes, but is not limited to, any of the following:

(i) Following or appearing within the sight of that individual.
(ii) Approaching or confronting that individual in a public place or on private property.
(iii) Appearing at that individual’s workplace or residence.
(iv) Entering onto or remaining on property owned, leased, or occupied by that individual.
(v) Contacting that individual by telephone.
(vi) Sending mail or electronic communications to that individual.
(vii) Placing an object on, or delivering an object to, property owned, leased, or occupied by that individual.

(f) “Victim” means an individual who is the target of a willful course of conduct involving repeated or continuing harassment.

Education and Prevention Programs

The College has developed comprehensive, intentional, and integrated programming, initiatives, strategies, and campaigns intended to end dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking that:

- Are culturally relevant, inclusive of diverse communities and identities, sustainable, responsive to community needs, and informed by research, or assessed for value, effectiveness, or outcome; and
- Consider environmental risk and protective factors as they occur on the individual, relationship, institutional, community and societal levels.

Educational programming consists of primary prevention and awareness programs for all incoming students and new employees and ongoing awareness and prevention campaigns for students and employees that:

1) Identifies domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking as prohibited conduct;
2) Defines using definitions provided both by the Department of Education as well as state law what behavior constitutes domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking;
3) Defines what behavior and actions constitute consent to sexual activity in the State of Michigan and/or using the definition of consent found in the Sexual Misconduct Policy;
4) Provides a description of safe and positive options for bystander intervention. Bystander intervention means safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking. Bystander intervention includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene;
5) Information on risk reduction. Risk reduction means options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence.

The College has also developed an annual educational campaign consisting of presentations that include distribution of educational materials to new students; participating in and presenting information and materials during new employee orientation.

Procedures for Reporting a Complaint

The College has procedures in place that serve to be sensitive to those who report sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, including informing individuals about their right to file criminal charges as well as the availability of counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance and other services on and/or off campus as well as additional remedies to prevent contact between a complainant and an accused party, such as housing, academic, transportation and working accommodations, if reasonably available. The College will make such accommodations, if the victim requests them and if they are reasonably available, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to the Director of Security or local law enforcement. Students and employees should contact Lyndon Parrish, Security & Conduct Director, Office of Security, 2104 Briegel Building or Jason Smith, Executive Director the Niles Campus, Room 110B, Niles Campus.

After an incident of sexual assault and domestic violence, the victim should consider seeking medical attention as soon as possible at Lakeland Community Hospital, 31 N St Joseph Ave, Niles, Michigan 49112. In Michigan, evidence may be collected even if you chose not to make a report to law enforcement.\(^3\) It is possible that the hospital may need the victim's name. It is important that a victim of sexual assault not bathe, douche, smoke, change clothing or clean the bed/linen/area where they were assaulted if the offense occurred within the past 120 hours so that evidence may be preserved that may assist in proving that the alleged criminal offense occurred/or is occurring or may be helpful in obtaining a protection order. In circumstances of sexual assault, if victims do not opt for forensic evidence collection, health care providers can still treat injuries and take steps to address concerns of pregnancy and/or sexually transmitted disease. Victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, and dating violence are encouraged to also preserve evidence by saving text messages, instant messages, social networking pages, other communications, and keeping pictures, logs or other copies of documents, if they have any, that would be useful to College hearing boards/investigators or police. Although the college strongly encourages all members of its community to report violations of this policy to law enforcement, it is the victim’s choice whether or not to make such a report and victims have the right to decline involvement with the police. The College will assist any victim with notifying local police if they so desire. Cass County Sheriff’s Department may be reached directly by calling 269-445-1560, in person at 321 M62, Cassopolis, Michigan. In addition, the Michigan State Police can be contacted by phone at 269-683-4411 or in person at 1000 Silverbrook Ave, Niles Michigan.

If you have been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, you should report the incident promptly to the Title IX Coordinator, (Employees: Human

\(^3\) Under the Violence Against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005, starting in 2009, states must certify that they do not “require a victim of sexual assault to participate in the criminal justice system or cooperate with law enforcement in order to be provided with a forensic medical exam, reimbursement for charges incurred on account of such an exam, or both.”
The College will provide resources, on campus, off campus or both, to persons who have been victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, and will apply appropriate disciplinary procedures to those who violate this policy. The procedures set forth below are intended to afford a prompt response to charges of sexual assault, domestic or dating violence, and stalking, to maintain confidentiality and fairness consistent with applicable legal requirements, and to impose appropriate sanctions on violators of this policy.

As time passes, evidence may dissipate or become lost or unavailable, thereby making investigation, possible prosecution, disciplinary proceedings, or obtaining protection from abuse orders related to the incident more difficult. If a victim chooses not to make a complaint regarding an incident, he or she nevertheless should consider speaking with Campus Security or other law enforcement to preserve evidence in the event that the victim changes her/his mind at a later date.

If a report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking is reported to the College, the below are the procedures that the College will follow as well as a statement of the standard of evidence that will be used during any investigation on campus arising from such a report:

Incident Being Reported: Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence or Stalking

Evidentiary Standard: Preponderance of the Evidence

1) Depending on when reported (immediate vs delayed report), institution will provide complainant with access to medical care.
2) Institution will assess immediate safety needs of complainant.
3) Institution will assist complainant with contacting local police if complainant requests and complainant will be provided with contact information for local police department.
4) Institution will provide complainant and respondent with referrals to on and off campus mental health & sexual assault advocate providers.
5) Institution will assess need to implement interim or long-term protective measures, such as housing changes, change in class schedule, and/or “No Contact” directive between both parties. This will occur whether or not the complainant wishes to proceed with an official report.
6) Institution will provide a “No trespass” directive to accused party if deemed appropriate.
7) Institution will provide assistance with applying for Protective Order.
8) Institution will provide a copy of the Sexual Misconduct Policy to complainant and respondent and inform both regarding timeframes for inquiry, investigation and resolution.
9) Institution will inform both parties of the outcome of the investigation, whether or not the accused will be administratively charged and what the outcome of the hearing is.

4 The Title IX Coordinator is regarded as a “Responsible Employee” under Title IX and also a “Campus Security Authority” under the Clery Act. Statistical information less the victims identifying information will be provided to campus public safety or whomever at the institution compiles the annual crime statistics even if the victim chooses not to alert campus public safety personally.
10) Institution will enforce the anti-retaliation policy and take immediate and separate action against parties that retaliate against a person for complaining of sex-based discrimination or for assisting in the investigation.

Assistance: Rights & Options

Regardless of whether a victim elects to pursue a criminal complaint or whether the offense is alleged to have occurred on or off campus, the college will assist victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking and will provide each victim with a written explanation of their rights and options. The following are the rights of the complainant according to college policy:

- The right to investigation and appropriate resolution of all credible complaints of sexual misconduct made in good faith to college administrators;
- The right to be treated with respect by college officials;
- The right of both accuser and accused to have the same opportunity to have others present (in support or advisory roles) during the campus hearing process;
- The right not to be discouraged by college officials from reporting an assault to both on-campus and off campus authorities;
- The right to be informed of the outcome and sanction of any disciplinary hearing involving sexual assault;
- The right to be informed by college officials of options to notify proper law enforcement authorities, including on-campus and local police, and the option to be assisted by campus authorities in notifying such authorities, if the student so chooses. This also includes the right not to report, if this is the victim’s desire;
- The right to be notified of available counseling, mental health or student services for victims of sexual assault, both on campus and in the community;
- The right to notification of and options for, and available assistance in, changing academic and living situations after an alleged sexual assault incident, if so requested by the victim and if such changes are reasonably available (no formal complaint, or investigation, campus or criminal, need occur before this option is available).

Accommodations may include:
- Change of an on-campus student’s housing to a different on-campus location;
- Assistance from college support staff in completing the relocation;
- Arranging to dissolve a housing contract and pro-rating a refund;
- Exam (paper, assignment) rescheduling;
- Taking an incomplete in a class;
- Transferring class sections;
- Temporary withdrawal;
- Alternative course completion options.

- The right not to have irrelevant prior sexual history admitted as evidence in a campus hearing;
- The right not to have any complaint of sexual assault mediated (as opposed to adjudicated);
- The right to make a victim-impact statement at the investigation and to have that statement considered by the investigator in determining its sanction;
- The right to a campus no-contact order against another student who has engaged in or threatens to engage in stalking, threatening, harassing or other improper behavior that presents a danger to the welfare of the complaining student or others;
- The right to have complaints of sexual misconduct responded to quickly and with sensitivity by the investigator.
- The right to appeal the finding and sanction of the investigation, in accordance with the standards for appeal established by the institution;
- The right to review all documentary evidence available regarding the complaint, subject to the privacy limitations imposed by state and federal law;
• The right to be informed of the names of all witnesses who will be called to give testimony, except in cases where a witness’ identity will not be revealed to the accused student for compelling safety reasons (this does not include the name of the alleged victim/complainant, which will always be revealed);
• The right to preservation of privacy, to the extent possible and allowed by law;
• The right to have the details of the investigation closed to the public;
• The right to petition that any member of the conduct body be removed on the basis of demonstrated bias;
• The right to bring a victim advocate or advisor to all phases of the investigation and campus conduct proceeding;
• The right to ask the investigators to identify and question relevant witnesses, including expert witnesses;
• The right to be fully informed of campus conduct rules and procedures as well as the nature and extent of all alleged violations contained within the complaint;
• The right to have the college compel the presence of student, faculty and staff witnesses, and the opportunity (if desired) to ask questions, directly or indirectly, of witnesses (including the accused student), and the right to challenge documentary evidence.
• The right to have complaints heard by conduct and appeals officers who have received annual sexual misconduct training;
• The right to have college policies and procedures followed without material deviation;
• The right to be informed in advance of any public release of information regarding the complaint;
• The right not to have released to the public any personally identifiable information about the complainant, without his or her consent.

In Michigan, a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking has the following rights:

• Be treated throughout the criminal justice process with fairness and respect for their dignity and privacy.
• Timely disposition of the case following the arrest of the accused.
• Receive an explanation of court procedures.
• Reasonable protection from the accused throughout the criminal justice process, including having a waiting area separate from the defendant and the defendant's relatives and witnesses (if practical), and to receive an explanation of procedures to follow if threatened or intimidated by the defendant.
• Be free from threats or acts of discharge from your employer because you are subpoenaed or requested by the prosecuting attorney to testify in court.
• Consult with the prosecuting attorney to give your views about the disposition of the case.
• Notice of:
  o Emergency and medical services from the investigating police agency.
  o The name of the person in the prosecutor's office with information about your case.
  o All scheduled court proceedings, including sentencing.
  o The defendant's release on bond or escape from custody while awaiting trial.
  o The address and telephone number of the probation department that is preparing the pre-sentence investigation report, if one is ordered by the judge.
  o Victim compensation benefits, including the address of the crime victims compensation board, and an explanation of eligibility requirements for compensation funds.
• Attend trial and all other court proceedings the accused has the right to attend (except possible sequestration during a trial before you testify).
• Confer with the prosecution before trial and before the jury is selected.
• Make an oral statement to a pre-sentence investigator, or to have a written impact statement included in the pre-sentence report.
• Make an oral or written statement to the court at sentencing.
• Your oral or written statement at sentencing is important.

Further, SMC complies with Michigan law in recognizing orders of protection by complying with whatever the judge directs in the order. Any person who obtains an order of protection from Michigan or any other state should provide a copy to the Security Office and the Office of the Title IX Coordinator. A student may then meet with the Director of Security to develop a Safety Action Plan, which is a plan for the Office of Security and the victim to reduce risk of harm while on campus or coming and going from campus. This plan may include, but is not limited to: escorts, special parking arrangements, providing a temporary cellphone, changing classroom location or allowing a student to complete assignments from home, etc. The College cannot apply for a legal order of protection, no contact order or restraining order for a victim from the applicable jurisdiction(s). The victim is required to apply directly for these services through the court that has jurisdiction in their residence. Protection from abuse orders may be available by contacting Domestic and Sexual Assault Services (DASAS), PO Box 402, Three Rivers, Michigan, dasasinfo@dasasmi.org, or 1-800-828-2023 (crisis line). The College may issue an institutional no contact order if deemed appropriate or at the request of the victim or accused. To the extent of the victim’s cooperation and consent, college offices will work cooperatively to ensure that the complainant’s health, physical safety, work and academic status are protected, pending the outcome of a formal college investigation of the complaint. For example, if reasonably available, a complainant may be offered changes to academic, living, or working situations in addition to counseling, health services, visa and immigration assistance and assistance in notifying appropriate local law enforcement. Additionally, personally identifiable information about the victim will be treated as confidential and only shared with persons with a specific need to know who are investigating/adjudicating the complaint or delivering resources or support services to the complainant (for example, publicly available record-keeping for purposes of Clery Act reporting and disclosures will be made without inclusion of identifying information about the victim, as defined in 42 USC 1395 (a) (20).) Further, the institution will maintain as confidential, any accommodations or protective measures provided to the victim to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide the accommodations or protective measures.

The College does not publish the name of crime victims nor house identifiable information regarding victims in the campus security department’s Daily Crime Log or online. Victims may request that directory information on file be removed from public sources by contacting Lyndon Parrish, Director of Security & Conduct, 269-782-1321 or lparrish@swmich.edu.

How to Be an Active Bystander

Bystanders play a critical role in the prevention of sexual and relationship violence. They are “individuals who observe violence or witness the conditions that perpetuate violence. They are not directly involved but have the choice to intervene, speak up, or do something about it.”\(^5\) We want to promote a culture of community accountability where bystanders are actively engaged in the prevention of violence without causing further harm. We may not always know what to do even if we want to help. Below is a list\(^6\) of some ways to be an active bystander. If you or someone else is in immediate danger, dial 911. This could be when a person is yelling at or being physically abusive towards another and it is not safe for you to interrupt.

1) Watch out for your friends and fellow students/employees. If you see someone who looks like they could be in trouble or need help, ask if they are ok.

2) Confront people who seclude, hit on, try to make out with, or have sex with people who are incapacitated.

3) Speak up when someone discusses plans to take sexual advantage of another person.

4) Believe someone who discloses sexual assault, abusive behavior, or experience with stalking.

5) Refer people to on or off campus resources listed in this document for support in health, counseling, or with legal assistance.

Risk Reduction

The following are some strategies to reduce one’s risk of sexual assault or harassment (taken from Rape, Abuse, & Incest National Network, www.rainn.org)

1) Be aware of your surroundings. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you to find a way to get out of a bad situation.

2) Try to avoid isolated areas. It is more difficult to get help if no one is around.

3) Walk with purpose. Even if you don’t know where you are going, act like you do.

4) Trust your instincts. If a situation or location feels unsafe or uncomfortable, it probably isn’t the best place to be.

5) Try not to load yourself down with packages or bags as this can make you appear more vulnerable.

6) Make sure your cell phone is with you and charged and that you have cab money.

7) Don’t allow yourself to be isolated with someone you don’t trust or someone you don’t know.

8) Avoid putting music headphones in both ears so that you can be more aware of your surroundings, especially if you are walking alone.

9) When you go to a social gathering, go with a group of friends. Arrive together, check in with each other throughout the evening, and leave together. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you to find a way out of a bad situation.

10) Trust your instincts. If you feel unsafe in any situation, go with your gut. If you see something suspicious, contact law enforcement immediately (local authorities can be reached by calling 911 in most areas of the U.S.).

11) Don’t leave your drink unattended while talking, dancing, using the restroom, or making a phone call. If you’ve left your drink alone, just get a new one.

12) Don’t accept drinks from people you don’t know or trust. If you choose to accept a drink, go with the person to the bar to order it, watch it being poured, and carry it yourself. At parties, don’t drink from the punch bowls or other large, common open containers.

13) Watch out for your friends, and vice versa. If a friend seems out of it, is way too intoxicated for the amount of alcohol they’ve had, or is acting out of character, get him or her to a safe place immediately.

14) If you suspect you or a friend has been drugged, contact law enforcement immediately (local authorities can be reached by calling 911 in most areas of the U.S.). Be explicit with doctors so they can give you the correct tests (you will need a urine test and possibly others).

15) If you need to get out of an uncomfortable or scary situation here are some things that you can try:
   a. Remember that being in this situation is not your fault. You did not do anything wrong, it is the person who is making you uncomfortable that is to blame.
   b. Be true to yourself. Don't feel obligated to do anything you don't want to do. "I don't want to" is always a good enough reason. Do what feels right to you and what you are comfortable with.
   c. Have a code word with your friends or family so that if you don’t feel comfortable you can call them and communicate your discomfort without the person you are with knowing. Your friends or family can then come to get you or make up an excuse for you to leave.
   d. Lie. If you don’t want to hurt the person’s feelings it is better to lie and make up a reason to leave than to stay and be uncomfortable, scared, or worse. Some excuses you could use are: needing to take care of a friend or family member, not feeling well, having somewhere else that you need to be, etc.

16) Try to think of an escape route. How would you try to get out of the room? Where are the doors? Windows? Are there people around who might be able to help you? Is there an emergency phone nearby?

17) If you and/or the other person have been drinking, you can say that you would rather wait until you both have your full judgment before doing anything you may regret later.

Adjudication of Violations

When appropriate, upon receipt of notice and/or a formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will initiate a prompt, fair and impartial process, commencing with an investigation which may lead to the imposition of sanctions for a respondent based upon a preponderance of the evidence.

Sexual Misconduct Complaint Process & Procedure

Procedures detailing investigation and resolution processes of the college can be found online at https://www.swmich.edu/media/website/content-assets/documents/sexual-misconduct-policy-ADA.pdf. Whether or not criminal charges are filed, the college or a person may file a complaint under the Sexual Harassment & Misconduct policy alleging that a student or employee violated the College’s policy on sexual misconduct.

Violations that have a sexual component are adjudicated through the sexual misconduct process while those that are non-sexual are adjudicated through student conduct.

All parties are entitled to a process which:

7 Title IX states that if an institution knows or reasonably should know of sexual harassment, to include sexual violence, the institution has a duty to investigate. Consequently, whether a complainant chooses to cooperate or not should not be the deciding factor for whether or not disciplinary charges are brought against an accused party. If an investigation determines that it is more likely than not that the institution’s sexual misconduct policy was violated, then the “College” may assume the role of the complainant.
• Is prompt fair and impartial. This includes being:
  o Completed within a reasonably prompt time frame with written notice and explanation of delays to all parties;
  o Conducted in a manner that is consistent with the colleges policies and transparent to the parties;
  o Given timely notice of meetings
  o Given timely provision to the parties and appropriate officials of equal access to any information that will be used during any disciplinary meetings;
  o Conducted by officials that do not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against any of the involved parties.
• Is conducted by administrators who, at a minimum, receive annual training on:
  o Issues related to dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, sexual harassment, retaliation, stalking and other behaviors that can be forms of sex or gender-based discrimination, harassment or violence covered by Title IX and the Clery Act;
  o How to investigate and conduct a hearing process that protects the safety of the parties and promotes accountability;
• Allows all parties the same opportunities to have others present during any disciplinary proceeding, including the right to have an advisor of their choice accompany them to any meeting or hearing.
• Does not limit the choice of advisor for any party in any meeting or proceeding; however the college may establish rules regarding the extent to which an advisor may participate as long as any restrictions apply to both parties.
• Provides for simultaneous written notification to all parties of:
  o The result of any disciplinary proceeding that arises from an allegation of dating/domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking;
  o The colleges procedures for the parties to appeal the result of the any disciplinary proceeding;
  o Any change in the result of a proceeding;
  o When such results become final
• Prohibits retaliation

Confidentiality
The college will protect the identity of persons who report having been victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking to the fullest extent of the law and as previously mentioned in this document.

Sanctions and Protective Measures
In all cases, investigations that result in a finding of more likely than not that a violation of the Sexual Misconduct/Student Conduct policy occurred will lead to the initiation of disciplinary procedures against the accused individual. The following are the College sanctions that may be imposed upon those determined to have violated this policy:

• Any student found responsible for violating the policy on Non-Consensual or Forced Sexual Contact (where no intercourse has occurred) will likely receive a sanction ranging from probation to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous campus conduct code violations.
• Any student found responsible for violating the policy on Non-Consensual or Forced Sexual Intercourse will likely face a recommended sanction of suspension or expulsion.
• Any student found responsible for violating the policy on sexual exploitation or sexual harassment will likely receive a recommended sanction ranging from warning to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous campus conduct code violations.
• Student Conduct violations (non-sexual in nature) have the following sanctions: warning, probation, loss of privileges, fines, restitution, discretionary sanctions, residence hall suspension, residence hall expulsion, college suspension, college expulsion, revocation of admission and/or degree, withholding degree.

The College shall implement protective measures following the report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and/or stalking which may include either or both of the following actions: interim suspension and/or no contact order. For students, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking are violations of the Student Code of Conduct & the Sexual/Gender-based Misconduct policy. Employees who violate this policy will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking are criminal acts which also may subject the perpetrator to criminal and civil penalties under federal and state law.

The Title IX Coordinator or their designee will determine whether interim interventions and protective measures should be implemented, and, if so, take steps to implement those protective measures as soon as possible. Examples of interim protective measures include, but are not limited to: a College order of no contact, residence hall relocation, adjustment of course schedules, a leave of absence, or reassignment to a different supervisor or position. These remedies may be applied to one, both, or multiple parties involved.8 Violations of the Title IX Coordinator’s directives and/or protective measures will constitute related violations that may lead to additional disciplinary action. Protective measures imposed may be temporary pending the results of an investigation or may become permanent as determined by SMC.

Sex Offender Registration

The federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act, enacted on October 28, 2000, requires institutions of higher education to issue a statement advising the campus community where law enforcement agency information provided by a State concerning registered sex offenders may be obtained. It also requires sex offenders already required to register in a State to provide notice, as required under State law, of each institution of higher education in that State at which the person is employed, carries on a vocation, volunteers services or is a student.

In Michigan, convicted sex offenders must register with the Michigan Department of State Police. You can link to this information, which appears on the Michigan State Police website at Michigan Public Sex Offender Registry.

8 Applicable law requires that, when taking such steps to separate the complainant and the accused, the College must minimize the burden on the complainant and thus should not, as a matter of course, remove the complainant from his or her job, classes or housing while allowing the accused to remain.
