

Southwestern Michigan College Coronavirus Symptoms

Southwestern Michigan College in compliance with Michigan Executive Order 2020-172 defines the following as “principle symptoms” of Covid-19 as it relates to the college guidelines on returning or remaining on campus.

Any one (1) of the following symptoms that are not explained by a known medical or physical condition

- Fever of over 100.4 degrees Fahrenheit
- An uncontrolled cough
- Shortness of Breath
- Loss of Taste or Smell

Any two (2) of the following symptoms not explained by a known medical or physical condition

- Muscle aches (myalgia)
- Sore throat
- Severe Headache
- Diarrhea
- Vomiting
- Abdominal pain